As people get older, the risk of developing dementia is higher. Consult a doctor if you or someone you love is experiencing signs and symptoms of dementia.