STATEMENT BY PROFESSOR LILY ANN BALDAGO,
REPRESENTATIVE OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL OF NURSES

The International Council of Nurses (ICN) congratulates the World Health Organization, specifically the Regional Committee for the Western Pacific Region, for all the initiatives in addressing the health needs and concerns of its peoples.

We are very happy to be one of the invited observers during this forty-sixth session and look forward to opportunities of directing our programme thrusts along the programmes of WHO. We are confident this experience will be one of the guiding factors in strengthening our commitment to gear our activities in responding to the health needs of people in the countries of our members.

The International Council of Nurses wish you more power as you endeavour to attain quality of life for all.
