

The Regional Committee

REALIZING the importance of an informed public opinion

RECOMMENDS that each Member State take immediate steps to translate where necessary, to reproduce and to distribute on the widest possible scale, information concerning the work of WHO, that each Member State take action to establish the liaison service already approved; and that each Member State include teaching on WHO as a subject in the curricula of Government and, where possible, private schools.