

The Regional Committee

1. RECOGNIZES the value of keeping health and medical workers abreast with progress in medical science;
2. EMPHASIZES the need for health and medical personnel to continue their education;
3. RECOMMENDS that efforts should be made by governments to encourage refresher courses, in-service training programmes and ensure facilities for continuation studies for health workers.