QUALITY OF FOOD ON INTERNATIONAL FLIGHTS

The Regional Committee,

Noting the concern of the Member countries for the standards of drinking water on international flights;

Recognizing that diseases are also transmitted through such media as food; and

Considering that such food is served on international flights,

REQUESTS the Regional Director:

(1) to obtain information from Member countries in the Region regarding (a) the safeguards currently in effect to control the sanitary quality of food served on international flights, and (b) studies done in Member countries to assess the risk of food-borne diseases on international flights;

(2) to present his findings to the next meeting of the Regional Committee.

Fifth meeting, 3 October 1972
